

Golgi College

The College “Camillo Golgi” is one of the ten Colleges managed by EDiSU (a special agency of the University of Pavia that is in charge of all the activities for the so called “right of study”). It is titled to prof. Camillo Golgi, the Nobel Prize for the Medicine, professor of Histology and Pathology and Rector of the University of Pavia.

The buildings were realised between 1975 and 1977 and it is located in the north-west part of the town, next to the Physic and Medicine Departments and the Sport Facilities managed by the CUS.

The College can be easily reached from the railway station and from the motorway Milano - Genova; the College has a big parking reserved to the students and the guests upon request.

The College has 327 single rooms (with bathroom) where students attending different degree courses, Ph. D. students, postgraduate students coming from different Countries, not only Italy, live together sharing their experiences and culture.

The College manages cultural events (open to the town) and supervision activities to support the academic studies. The Golgi’s Teams take part in the InterCollege Competition, managed every year from the CUS.

The College offers some rooms (single and double) in Building 1 and 4 for visiting professor e academic staff; these rooms can be reserved writing to the Administrative Office (economato_golgi@edisu.pv.it) or to the Presidency of EDiSU (presidenza@edisu.pv.it).

... and much more you can enjoy only sharing the Golgi life style together with the other students!!!!

Common Facilities

The College is made up of 6 buildings, numbered from north to south as in the map here represented.

The Common Facilities are at the ground floor of each building; they are open to all the persons living in the Collegio.

The Common Facilities are open every day, from 8.00 to 24.00, expecting for cleaning and events or meeting, that will be communicated by the Office.

The students and guests have to respect the Rules of the College Community (http://www.edisu.pv.it/uploads/Regolamento%20Collegio%20Pavia_maggio%202018.pdf) and of the College (<http://golgi.edisu.pv.it>); the needs of the students have the priority.

Persons not living in the College can enter only when the Reception is open and the name of the visitors has to be recorded on the Visitors' Book at the Reception.

The students have to collaborate with the staff of the Collegio to guarantee the good functioning and to manage the cultural and sportive events.

For any further information about the College and the EDiSU Facilities you can ask at the Staff of the Administrative Office.
